Training Content and Schedule

Day 1 & 2

You will learn about soft skills, its importance and scope of being a certified soft skills trainer. Participants will learn high class opening skills, delivery skills and master sequencing of content. Participants will be taught proper layout, presentation skills, questioning skills and listening skills. You will also learn use of tools and techniques of effective training i.e ice-breakers, role plays, training games, use of audio - video, background music etc. We encourage you to study top soft skills trainers of the world such as Anthony Robbins, Robin Sharma, Shiv Khera and more. During the course of training you will realise that all good soft skills trainers are also good marketers. So Day 2 will focus on marketing and selling skills.

Day 3

It's time to practice, participants will have to practice and deliver training using all the tools and techniques taught during the training programme. Every participant will be provided with feedback and you will also learn tools and techniques of taking feedback of your own training.

Note - One of the main aim of LCCI's Certified Soft Skills trainer programme is to develop trainers who are capable of delivering outstanding training in any setting. The intention is to develop flexible and adaptable trainers instead of developing strict methodological trainers.
