"I got the opportunity of Internship from à-la-carte at Marriot. Working for Marriott was great because there were many opportunities for the growth. The company really value their employees. During that time, I had many opportunities and I learnt a lot.

Scottish Hospitality Academy (A-la-carte Hospitality Nepal), Kathmandu

My hospitality journey progressed through the ADHM at Sphere Institute of Technology, where a strong blend of theory and practical training—especially in beverage studies—shaped my passion into a career. Now, I work as a bartender at W Edinburgh and pursue my Bachelor's at Queen Margaret University. Thanks to Sphere and LCCI GQ for laying the foundation for this journey.
